Notice of Upcoming Referee Training (10/11/2013)

All Wiser organizations, Wiser sport teams, and players,

Since the World Wiser Sport Committee (WWSC) published its video tutorial titled “How to Play Wiser” in May, 2013 and thanks to the efforts of popularization you all made, the Wiser sport has been flourishing rapidly and vigorously in various countries and regions in the world. We thank you all very much for your support to the WWSC and the Wiser Sport. We are also very glad to receive so many reports on the numerous Wiser tournaments and matches that you have held at different levels in your local countries and regions!

Due to the rapid growth of Wiser organizations and Wiser sport teams all over the world, more and more Wiser competitions and matches are being held. As a result, the demand toward qualified Wiser referees is growing day by day! Our Committee has been continuously receiving many requests for asking the WWSC to offer the training of qualified Wiser referees. Having a match judged by an official qualified Wiser referee can ensure fair competition between the teams and truly enforce the Wiser Playing Rules set up by the World Wiser Sport Committee in the match.

In response to the demand of having more qualified Wiser referees from everywhere, the World Wiser Sport Committee is planning to hold a Wiser referee training class every quarter. The training class for the fourth quarter of 2013 will be held at 8:30 am Pacific Time on Saturday, October 26 at the WWSC’s US headquarters. The address is 150 E. Colorado Blvd., Suite 202, Pasadena, CA 91105, USA. In addition, if a country or region has a special need and has a relatively large number of people interested in attending the training, the WWSC will consider the possibility of holding a special training class at a suitable time.

Anyone who would like to register this training please truthfully fill out the attached “2013 Referee Training Registration Form” and e-mail the completed form back to info@worldwisersport.org prior to the registration deadline of October 21st, 2013. Late submissions will not be accepted!

Due to limited seating, the final roster of attendees of this training class will be determined based on the order of time of receipt. Every admitted attendee of this training will receive an e-mail notice from our Committee as the confirmation for attending this training. All attendees please bring the printout of this e-mail notice with you on the day of training when checking in as the proof of admission.

To those who submitted a registration but were not admitted into this training of October 26 due to limited seating, our Committee will keep your registrations as active and give you priority arrangement for the next available training class !
