World Wiser Sport Committee

Notice of the Launch of Official Website (11/12/2014)

To: All Wiser sport organizations, teams, and players

This notice includes the following two announcements.

I. The Launch of World Wiser Sport Committee's Official Website

Today, November 12, 2014, the World Wiser Sport Committee (WWSC) is pleased to announce the launch of our official website. The following web links are:

- English : <http://worldwisersport.org/>;
- Traditional Chinese : <http://worldwisersport.org/?lang=zh-hant>
- Simplified Chinese : <http://worldwisersport.org/?lang=zh-hans>

Through the formal launch of WWSC's official website to the public, we hope to achieve the goals or serve the functions as listed in the following:

1. Provide various resources and teaching materials for learning to play Wiser: The resources and materials will not only help Wiser fans and beginners speed up their learning process of playing Wiser ball, but also allow everybody to easily teach and promote the Wiser sport.
2. Become an information exchange platform for the Wiser sport: (a) All public announcements, notices, and information about any activities held by WWSC will be published on our website; (b) Our website will be regularly updated to provide you all of the latest news and information about the Wiser sport activities happening worldwide; (c) Share the web links of Wiser organizations, clubs, and teams around the world and their featured galleries of Wiser sport activities.
3. Establish an effective communication channel: Through the launch of our website, we hope to be able to respond more quickly and effectively to the inquiries about the rules when playing Wiser ball. Additionally, Wiser players and teams can choose to join us on our website to become WWSC members. If you wish to receive our future notices and the latest Wiser activity information via email, you are welcome to subscribe to our mailing list.

Please note especially that the registered logo, trademarks, and service marks of the World Wiser Sport Committee including its graphic design, text, use of colors, and slogans included in this website are intellectual property of the WWSC and are protected by applicable copyright and trademark laws in the United States and other countries. Therefore, without prior written permission of the WWSC, any duplication, imitation, or use in whole or in part of the logo is strictly prohibited. Additionally, all content belonging to the WWSC on our website including but not limited to text, graphics, photos, videos, data, the name of the website, and the design and layout of the web pages are owned by the WWSC. Without obtaining WWSC's written consensus and authorization, any unauthorized duplication, sharing, forwarding, and distribution by any individual or organization is strictly prohibited. For detailed information, please refer to our website's terms and conditions of use and privacy policy.

To provide the convenience for users from different countries and regions in the world to browse our website, we utilized "human translation" and "machine translation" dynamically through Google Translate. The original English content on our website was translated into versions in different languages. However, irrespective of translation method, the automatic translation rendered by Google Translate may especially produce unexpected translation results. Therefore, WWSC cannot guarantee the quality and accuracy of the translations. The official text at our website is written in English, and the English version is the only version endorsed by the WWSC. If any questions arise related to the accuracy of the information contained in the translations, please always refer to the official English version. Where there is any question, the English version is always the authoritative version of the website.

Finally, although we made our best effort and conducted multiple tests during the period of setting up WWSC's website in order to transmit the most up-to-date and accurate information, inadvertent errors may still exist in the content of our website. Therefore, we would appreciate your assistance in promptly notifying the WWSC of any errors while browsing our website so that timely corrections can be made. You are also very welcome to send us any information about your Wiser activities and web links conveying the exciting stories of your Wiser organization for sharing with others at WWSC's website. If you have any question or suggestions regarding the use of WWSC's website, please contact WWSC at any time via email. Please send your communications to WWSC's email box: info@worldwisersport.org.

II. Application (App) for Recording Wiser Ball Games Is Now Available for Download

To help others easily, correctly, and fairly record a Wiser ball game's progress and results in practice or in matches, a Wiser ball fan has voluntarily developed an app to record the progress of a Wiser ball game using a mobile device. This app has been repeatedly tested and is now approved by the World Wiser Sport Committee's Secretarial Bureau. A web link for downloading the app is provided here for free trial. The app currently available for download is only for Apple iOS devices. Currently, the app for Android is still undergoing testing and debugging. Once finalized, we will post a web link of the Android app available for download at our website as soon as possible.

Apple iOS System (applicable to iPad Mini and iPad or iPad Air)

Please note that the current version of the app is a trial version that can be downloaded and used for free. The free trial period ends on December 31, 2015. You are welcome to report any bugs and provide us with any suggestions or feedback after trying the app. Please email us at any time (to info@worldwisersport.org) so any corrections and improvements can be made before releasing the official version of the app.

In addition, our website also provides the above web link and a demo video of the app on YouTube. Please see the links below:
